Good Morning,

Sir, the narrowed request does not significantly lessen the amount of documents we need to review.
Is there a particular document that you are interested in?

Good morning Candice,

These records are being sought for use in a case that is pending in the Court of Common Pleas in Lexington County in South Carolina in a matter that has now been pending for over a year. We were just on the trial roster and had to be continued by the trial judge.

Please advise if you will be able to get us these documents by October 31st? If you can agree to have the responsive documents to us by October 31st then I can agree to forgo the filing of any action to enforce the FOIA request.

Please advise,

J. Taylor Powell

Good Morning:

We have received a large volume of documents (100's of pages) regarding your request and need to review them for responsiveness and then if responsive, perform a page by page review of the documents. Unfortunately we will not be able to complete these tasks in 14 days. Is there a deadline that you are working under that you need the documents by?

Thank you,
